

The Sinclair Group that is using their business interests to effect the election is a terrible example of how democracy can be derailed by corporate interests. It's up to you, to protect our democracy!!